Breakout Session ...

The global What Matters to You (WMTY) movement has been shown to lead to better quality outcomes, increased joy at work and financial returns and benefits to both those providing and receiving care and the wider community.

In this interactive session, you will hear about WMTY projects that have explored different ways to embed and implement WMTY to improve the quality of care. You will then have the opportunity to workshop these projects and adapt them to your own context. End by hearing from an expert global WMTY panel about their approach to WMTY.

Join our passionate international group for this interactive session and leave inspired and equipped with practical tools, examples, and strategies to build a resilient, relationshipcentered foundation for lasting change.
